- The club leadership can authorize a payment not approved in the club budget and limited to $1000 (maximum $1000).
- The club may have a member(s) who is compensated, either personally or through a business entity, for providing a service to the club and will meet vendor requirements as determined by the Activities Department.

Explanation: The club may compensate a member for providing a service but will abide by the requirements for a vendor specified by the Activities Department.

- The club regularly supports bona fide charities.
- The club sells its members' items with a percentage of the sale going to club funds.
- The club sells items at a mark-up with the proceeds going to club funds.

8. Additional Club Governing Rules:

The club has written policies governing club operations.

Members cannot use club equipment, patterns or supplies to make items to sell for personal profit.

Guests are not permitted to use the club's sewing machines, long-arm machine or other mechanical equipment.

In March 2021, the club entered into an agreement with the Quilters for Veterans (QFV) a subsidiary of the national Quilts of Valor and comprised mainly of club members. The agreement was amended February 5, 2024 and filed with the Association. According to the agreement, "QFV guests are subject to the guest limitations as specified in the CCPM, the SAQ Club Charter and the club's policies." QFV members who are SCA residents but not SAQ club members may participate in monthly QFV meetings scheduled on-site, typically 12 annually. This charter's guest policy states a maximum attendance by SCA residents to three functions before becoming a club member, therefore, participation in these QFV meetings by an SCA resident is the extent of their access to any additional SAQ events held in the sewing room, held at SCA facilities or elsewhere.

Authorization

The club is established as a Chartered Club of the Sun City Anthem Community Association, Inc. (SCA) and is authorized to operate in furtherance of its stated purpose and in accordance with its governing documents, particularly the Committees and Clubs Policy Manual (CCPM) by a resolution of the SCA Board of Directors.
